

LISTEN.
THINK.
SOLVE.®

EMEA Graduate Trainee Program

MARINE DUBOUSSET
EMEA HR Project Manager

Program Goals

Prepare participants for careers in sales or technical roles within Rockwell Automation

Success in an environment that cultivates future leaders and recognises creativity and excellence

Fast track learning via an intensive training plan

Create a pool of young talent

Program Structure

The program consists of both classroom training and experimental learning through focused field assignments

RA Orientation

- Understanding Rockwell Automation's strategy
- Rockwell Automation culture of inclusion

Professional Courses

- Presentation and communication skills
- Time Management
- Project Management

Establishing Common Ground

- Industry standards
- Automation Fundamentals

In-depth Training

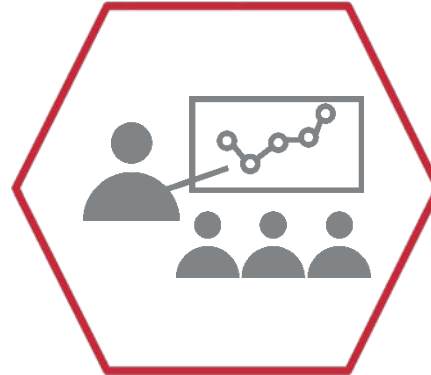

- Who are our customers
- What industries we serve
- Rockwell product & technology

Benefits of the Program

Opportunity to match your background, skills and interests with an environment that will prepare you as a leader of change

Opportunity to follow general induction from EMEA leaders, soft skills trainings and technical trainings

Opportunity to have employee recognition and internal exposure

Candidate Profile

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree: Minimum 2:1 or Master's degree (Preferred)
- 6 – 12 months work experience (excluding summer jobs or volunteering)
- Eligible to work and travel in the EU
- Must be available to start work in January 2019

Whether you're interested in software, industrial or mechanical engineering, we have what you're looking for and more...

This programme is a great way to kick off your career!

Thank you!

Questions?

 Connect with us.
www.rockwellautomation.com

